

Urban Freight Transportation- Selected Presentations from the METRANS International Urban Freight Conference

Tom O'Brien
Center for International Trade and Transportation
CSULB

CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL TRADE & TRANSPORTATION

INUF 2013

- 5th Urban Freight Conference since 2006
- Increased International Focus with 16 countries represented
- Researchers, industry and public sector

2013 I-NUF

5th METRANS International Urban Freight Conference
October 8-10, 2013 The Westin Long Beach Hotel, CA

INUF 2013

- Papers and presentations covering a wide range of urban freight issues
 - Local/last mile pick-up and delivery
 - Environmental impacts and responses
 - Urban economics
 - Port/gateway operations
 - Freight in urban modeling and planning
 - ITS applications

INUF 2013

- Papers and presentations on a wide range of urban freight issues
 - Hubs and city interactions
 - Emerging trends in consumption, production and spatial organization
 - Security and vulnerability
 - Best Practices

INUF 2013

- Keynotes
 - Charles Holland, VP of Engineering for UPS
 - Jake Racker, Regional Logistics Director for Kroger
- Special sessions
 - TRB Urban Freight Committee
 - “What researchers need to know”
 - Centers of Excellence
 - MPO/COG
 - Panama Canal
 - Site visits

INUF 2013

- Post conference
 - Papers and presentations posted on METRANS website (www.metrans.org)
 - Special issue of Research in Transportation Business and Management

Questions?

Tom O'Brien, Ph.D.

Director Of Research
Center for International Trade and Transportation,
CSULB

1000 Studebaker, #3
Long Beach CA 90815
562-985-2875

thomas.obrien@csulb.edu