I believe you're going to be with you
 that night, then the next time you get called home
 by dad... to soon in my opinion.
 I love you, for
 you, price, & michey are horrible
 because I will hold you.
 IT'S NOT GOODBYE, IT'S I'LL SEE YOU LATER.

This is the last
 you gave me freshman year, & now it's your
 in, drop in bombs for best friend

I LEAVE
I WILL
SEE YOU
SOON!
THANK YOU

We were all at McQuire's Restaurant in Pensacola... for baseball. I remember Miss Nancy came up to our table and said,
"ahead boys, y'all can order whatever y'all want." So, naturally.... Tanner ordered a $40.00 lobater dinner. Everyone else was getting burgers and wings.... Not tanner. I'm sure yall can imagine what Miss Nancy and Coach Doug did once they got the bill. I'm not going to repeat what was said. But let's jus say he was on a tighter budget for the rest of that trip.

But that was Tanner. He enjoyed the FINER things in life. But when I say FINER, I don't mean a Rolex watch, an expensive car or fancy clothes.
Nope. You see to Tanner the FINE things in life were his family, and his friends, and baseball, and life. He loved life so much. Every day he lived it to the fullest. That goofy smile and the laugh. That laugh would brighten anyones day. I'm going to miss not seeing him, but I believe he is in the best place now. I know he is. We have lost a great person. But heaven is getting one great angel. Tanner, we are not saying goodbye.
We are saying see you again someday. I love you brother, take it easy.

Amen
