1995 NPTS - Destination of Trips with Work as Origin

4:00 PM - 7:00 PM

The commute to work continues to decline as a share of all travel. While 37 Percent of all person trips start during the two traditional peak periods of 6AM-9AM and 4PM-7PM, only 10 percent of all person trips are to or from work during these two period. However, the work trip often plays a pivotal role in daily travel because it determines how and when other daily travel is conducted.

For those who leave work between 4PM-7PM, about 30 percent go from work to someplace other than home.
