

Motor Fuels and Finance Division Update

2015 Highway Information Seminar

Ralph M. Davis, Division Chief
Motor Fuels and Finance Division (MF&F)

September 22, 2015

Office Organization Chart

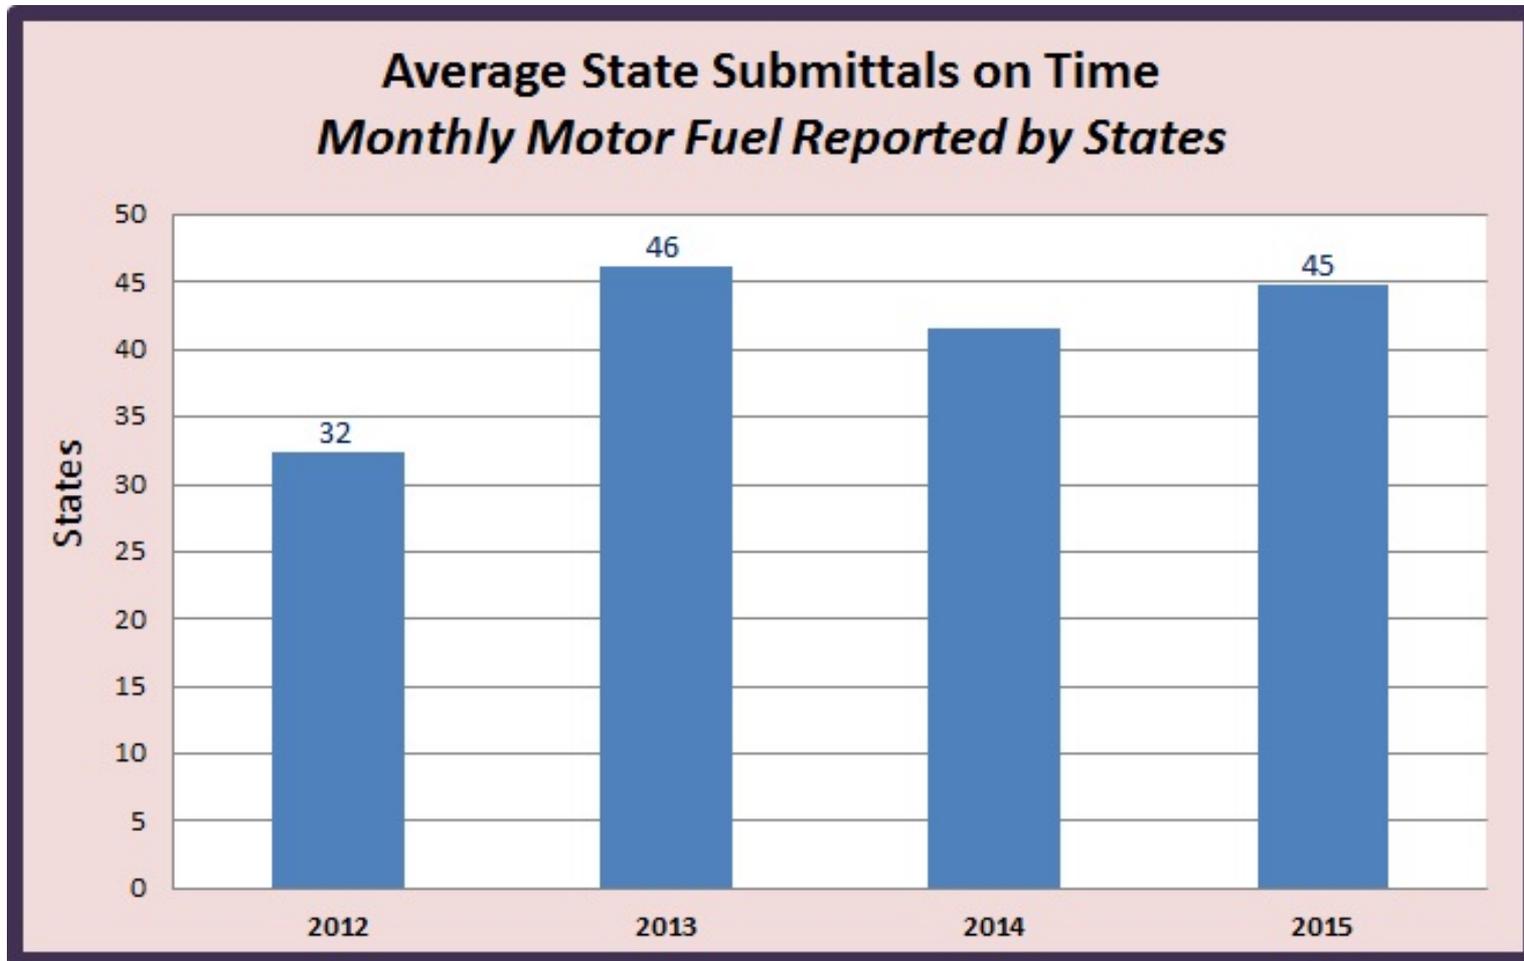

Focus Areas

- Towards better in:
 - Data quality
 - Timeliness
 - Accuracy
- User needs over HPPI needs
- Report Cards

Recent Results

Monthly Motor Fuels Data Reporting Improved

Recent Results Cont'd

- Driver licenses data improved – States reporting expired licenses and deceased drivers have discontinued the practice
- Vehicle registration data improved - Historical trends and alternative data sources used to validate/improve reporting

Recent Results Cont'd

- Financial data improved – New tables developed to meet needs of Congress and Office of the Secretary of Transportation, missing tables produced

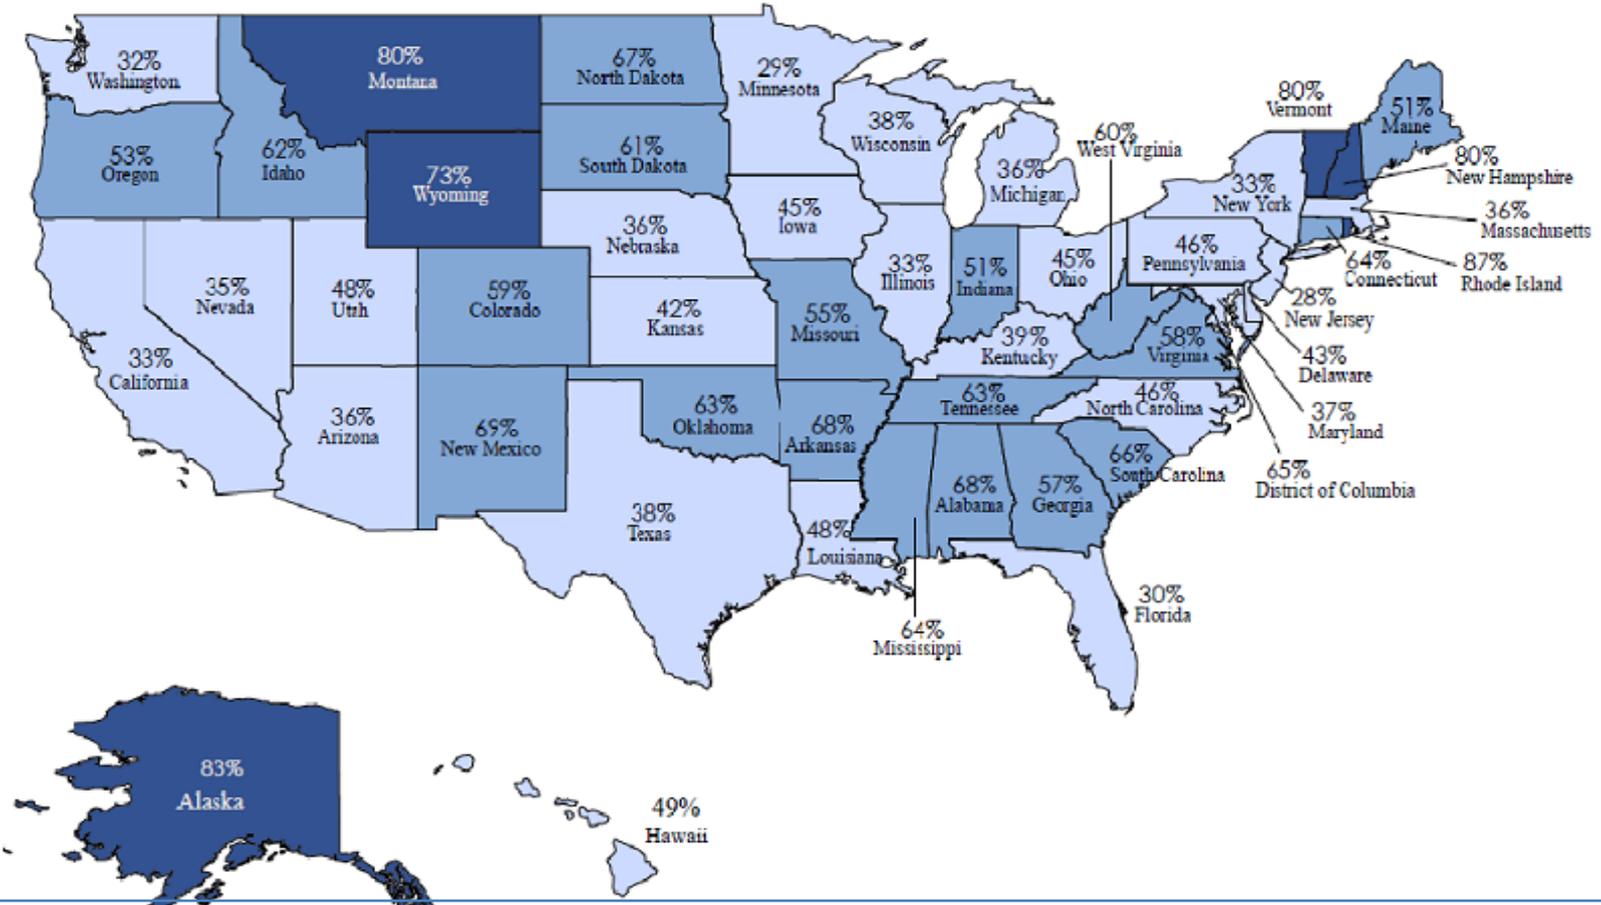

What's on the Horizon?

- Focus on information that tell a story rather than just static data
- Assist policy decision making

Federal Share of State Highway Capital Expenditures

National Average: 43%

Legend: <50% (light blue), 50%-70% (medium blue), 70%+ (dark blue)

Source: FHWA, Highway Statistics Tables HF-2 and FA-21, 10-yr average 2003-2012
 Map by FHWA, HHPI, Data Visualization Center (DVC)

What's on the Horizon?

- Historical trend data series
 - Known as 200 series data
 - Last updated in 1995
- User-friendly format
- 500 Series Best Practices

Not Just Data !

...but information that will help frame transportation policy making in the 21st Century and beyond

UNCLE SAM NEEDS YOU !

Questions and Comments

Ralph M. Davis

1200 New Jersey Avenue, SE

Washington DC 20590

Ralph.Davis@dot.gov

(202) 366-9235